WHARF AND WAVE.

The bark Annie Johnson, for San Francisco yesterday, carried a cargo of 7,531 bags of sugar, 925,525 pounds, valued at $44,679.
 Charles Nelson, the wealthy shipowner of San Francisco, first came to the Coast on the old barkentine Monitor. He is part owner in over fifty steam and sailing vessels.
 Guy Kelley is now in charge of the Fort street wharf office of the Inter-Island Company. Willie White has moved his quarters to the general office of the company on Queen street.
 The Claudine may smash all records when she leaves for Kahului next week—if she wants to. She has a new propeller of the very latest improved pattern and has been thoroughly cleaned and overhauled from stem to stern.
 The new line-of-battle ship Shikishima is now in Portsmouth docks, preparatory to her public trials. It is expected that the Japanese officers and men sent to England to bring her out will take delivery of her during November.—Japan Mail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—J. F. Otterson, the second mate of the S. C. Allen, was drowned early Sunday morning at Mission street wharf. He had been drinking. He went on board of the Allen at 2 a. m. Having partly undressed he went on deck and fell over the vessel's side. A launch was beside the Allen and upon the rail of this Otterson's head probably struck. His body was recovered yesterday morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The British steamer Victoria, ten days from Honolulu, arrived late last evening and anchored in the stream. She will be pressed into the army transport service between San Francisco and Manila. Her register is 1,507 tons, and she is consigned to J. J. Moore & Co., of this city. Three San Franciscans stowed away on the Victoria at Honolulu. Two were boiler-makers. The Victoria was inspected before she started on her last voyage, and her boilers were found in excellent condition. The boiler-makers' strike, therefore, cannot delay her sailing. John Ness of Sunderland, England, is the Victoria's owner.
 The United States army transport Charles Nelson arrived yesterday afternoon from San Francisco with a portion of the Thirty-second Infantry and is coaling at Irmgard wharf for Manila. She sailed from San Francisco on October 1, the same day as the transport Glenogle, and brings no later news. There are 210 enlisted men on the Charles Nelson, including a detachment of the hospital corps. They are under Major Charles E. Cabell of the Thirty-second Volunteers, and First Lieutenant Russel C. Langdon of the Third regulars, quartermaster and commissary. The other officers of the regiment on board are: Captains H. A. Reed, C. D. Comfort, J. R. Herford, assistant surgeon; First Lieutenants A. B. Schaefer, adjutant; G. S. Ralston, S. W. Weaver; Second Lieutenants B. R. Wade and A. C. Miller; C. W.
